Dear Wendy,

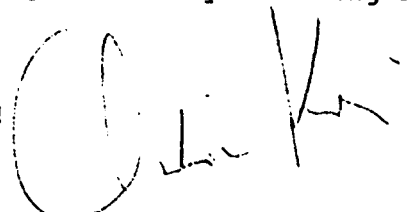

This letter is to confirm your appointment of Australian American PR to stage a luncheon for the QTTC during the Premier's visit to Los Angeles on Tuesday, May 26th, 1987. As agreed our fees to handle all preparations and the execution of the function will be $2,500 (US). Expenses and costs incurred will be billed direct to the QTTC without any mark-up. All major costs will be cleared through you. Minor costs such as general phonecalls, postage, photocopying, couriers etc will be added to our final invoice.

This letter also confirms your appointment of AAPR to stage a brunch for Queensland Day on June 6th. This event is to be held in Costa Mesa in conjunction with Tru Roo. The agreed fee for staging this more informal yet lively day is $1,500 (US) - expenses will be handled as detailed above.

We are all looking forward to pooling our creative resources with you and the staff of QTTC, to ensure both events create the effect you require and most importantly, are remembered many moons hence!

As mentioned during our most recent conversations, should you wish to appoint AAPR to handle your events/PR on a more formal on-going basis providing continuity on a long term basis, we would enjoy discussing same.

Cheers!
